WARD COMMUNITY EVENT FUND ("WCEF") APPLICATION

Office of the Councillors

CONDITIONS

By accepting a grant the applicant agrees:

- a) To provide a post event summary within 90 days post-event. Post event summaries must be in writing and include actual revenues and expenses, attendance figures and a brief summary of what was achieved through the event. Future WCEF applications will not be considered until such time as a post-event summary has been received by the WCEF Administrator. (See WCEF Guidelines Section 4)
- b) To return, within 120 days of the event, any portions of WCEF funds awarded but not used for the purpose requested. (See WCEF Guidelines Section 6)
- c) To respond to a request for an Audit, should such notification be received. Each year, the CCCO shall conduct random audits on WCEF grant recipients. If selected for such an audit, recipients agree to, within 90 days from the date of notification, provide documentation regarding all revenues (donations/tickets/sales) and expenses including copies of receipts in support of the event. Failure to respond to an audit will negate any future consideration for a WCEF grant. (See WCEF Guidelines Section 9)
- d) That the City of Calgary or any Member of Council, individually or collectively, is not in any way financially or legally responsible for any deficits, cost over-runs or incidents arising or occurring in relation to any event or initiative. (See WCEF Guidelines Section 2)

I have read and agree to the CONDITIONS above.
