

Macleod Trail & 162 Avenue SE Interchange

Public Art

The design concept is inspired by the perception of motion as it will be experienced by pedestrians, drivers and cyclists moving through the site at various speeds. Vicki Scuri Siteworks has developed a pattern language of overlapping curves suggested by the diverging diamond. The undulating curves are reminiscent of the rippling currents of the nearby Fish Creek and Bow River, promoting a perceptual experience of motion and place.