Statutory Declaration – Form Instructions

Completing the Statutory Declaration:

1. Contractors engaged with The City must use the Statutory Declaration form located in Appendix A of the Standard General Conditions. No other Statutory Declaration forms will be accepted by *The City. For greater clarity, any modified Statutory Declaration forms submitted to The City will be rejected.
2. Statutory Declarations cannot be completed by any other party, other than the declarant/authorized legal representative of the Contractor. For greater clarity, a Contractor's declarant, as the Contractor's authorized representative, may execute the Statutory Declaration pursuant to Article 10.2 of The City's Standard General Conditions.
3. The Contractor must indicate on the form whether the declaration is a condition for progress payments or for the release of statutory holdback funds. Only one option may be selected on the Statutory Declaration.
4. Complete all portions of the form, ensuring there are no spelling or typing errors. The City will reject Statutory Declarations that are completed incorrectly, are missing Commissioner of Oaths or Notary Public's signatures, etc.
5. The completed Statutory Declaration form must be attached to the second and all subsequent Construction Period invoices.
