

Glass Blowing Workshop

What to Wear and Bring for Class:

- Cotton shirt with long sleeves
- Long pants
- Tie back long hair
- Wear closed toe shoes
- Bring UV safety glass or sunglasses
- Bring lots of juice or water as work is very hot
- Bring lunch and beverages for each day

*The following Tuesday evening after course completion is project pick-up night.

Glass blowing instructor, Barry Fairbairn, received his training at the Alberta College of Art and has worked for several years at Skookum Art Glass. He is now a practicing artist working out of Double Struggle Studio, which is one of Western Canada's only hot glass facilities that is open to the public (by appointment). In addition to providing classes, the instructor is also available for private tutoring.
