

Transit Safety Snapshot

For the period of Jan. 16 -22, 2023

Transit Safety Snapshot | The City of Calgary is continually making operational improvements to enhance safety for Transit riders and the broader Calgary community. This is a weekly update to critical indicators of safety for Calgarians. Transit riders are reminded that they can discreetly report immediate safety or security concerns by sending a text to 74100. Staff will assist and dispatch officers, if needed.

Wins of the Week | Highlights, Successes & Milestones

- Calls for Service (i.e. calls requiring peace officer response) dropped by 260 calls this week, which indicates that fewer safety and security incidents were reported.
- An update about the Transit Ambassador program was published on the City Newsroom website. This story was picked up by the media and coverage appeared in multiple news outlets, including CBC, Livewire Calgary, and the Calgary Herald.
- In response to a request from a concerned parent, peace officers on the Community Outreach Team (COT) located a young woman who had not been attending essential medical appointments. The woman was connected with a shelter worker who will advocate for treatment admission.
- 311 received two calls from Calgarians who wished to compliment Transit peace officers and the work they have been doing to help keep riders safe.

Upcoming Initiatives

- Ongoing collaboration across The City of Calgary to address transit safety.
  - A Lunch & Learn with Council on transit safety was held on Monday, Jan. 23 with representatives from Calgary Police Service, Calgary Transit, Corporate Security, Emergency Management & Community Safety and Community Strategies.
  - Among the next steps that were shared to the group are increased communications and a Transit Safety Organizational Review.
