

Transit Safety Snapshot

For the period of Jul. 03 – Jul. 09, 2023

Transit Safety Snapshot | The City of Calgary is continually making operational improvements to enhance safety for Transit riders and the broader Calgary community. This is a weekly update to critical indicators of safety for Calgarians. Transit riders are reminded that they can discreetly report immediate safety or security concerns by sending a text to 74100. Staff will assist and dispatch officers, if needed.

Over the past 27 weeks, reported weapons have been trending down. Since January 2023 on Calgary Transit properties, the highest reporting of weapons observed was 15, and the lowest was this past week with one. With the increase of officers on the system, the visual presence of uniforms has increased compliance to City bylaws.

Wins of the Week | Highlights, Successes & Milestones

- During the first weekend of the Calgary Stampede, Transit peace officers patrolled 65 CTrain stations and had 193 positive interactions with the public.
- Two children were reported missing on Transit this past weekend. Transit peace officers successfully located and reunited both missing children with their parents.
- Transit peace officers provided education and enforcement of the City's bylaws by issuing 33 violation tickets and giving 175 verbal warnings related to Stampede events and activities on Calgary Transit system.
- One of Calgary Outreach Team's (COT) clients graduated from addiction treatment and is starting a new job next week. He is very grateful and believes that his life would not have changed without COT.

Recent & Upcoming Initiatives

- The onboarding of a new class of Transit peace officers is scheduled to begin on August 14, 2023.
- On the first weekend of Stampede, the Victoria Park Station saw overcrowding due to the ongoing construction of the level crossing. Additional resources were brought in to provide improved crowd management and safety.
