Retirement Announcement – Meryl Whittaker

Following a lengthy and impressive career in public service, Meryl Whittaker has decided to retire and is stepping down from her current position as Integrity Commissioner effective November 30, 2021.

The timing of her departure will allow Ms. Whittaker to support the next City Council through its orientation and help position them for success. Recruitment for this position will begin shortly.

The Integrity Commissioner fills an important role in enhancing citizen trust and confidence in City Council, and I thank Ms. Whittaker for her service in this important role.

Signed,

Mayor ~~Nenshi~~
