COMPENSATION AT THE CALGARY POLICE SERVICE

DEFINITIONS

Sworn positions are more commonly known as 'police officers' and consist of police officers and senior police officers whom are appointed under section 5 or section 36 of the Alberta Police Act as a police officer or a Chief of Police.

Civilian positions consist of all non-sworn positions at the Service, including exempt, unionized or contract permanent, full-time, and temporary, on-call and students. Civilian members may also be peace officers and perform peace officer duties in areas such as traffic and court units.

The salary range is the full scope of salary for a group of positions. For example, a Data Entry Clerk salary range is: $48,321 - $92,602.

When reporting salary ranges, part-time positions have been described using the minimum and maximum annual salary equal to a full-time position. Therefore, the salary for both a full-time and a part-time Data Entry Clerk would be reported as $48,321 - $92,602 in the salary range tables.

SWORN POSITIONS

Sworn positions encompass the wide range of policing duties required to provide municipal policing services within a major Canadian city. The Alberta Justice and Solicitor General defines the work of officers and the Chief of Police:

Police officers are responsible for enforcing federal, provincial, and municipal laws, protecting life and property, preventing crime, and keeping the peace. They have a broad range of duties and roles of which law enforcement is a major role. Police officers investigate occurrences, arrest offenders and bring them before the criminal justice system. They also provide a variety of community services including crime prevention, educational programs, assisting in locating missing persons, dealing with lost property, traffic control, victim assistance and accident investigation.

The Chief of Police is responsible for the day to day operations of the police service, and accountable to the commission for the operation of the police service. Specific duties are outlined in the Police Act.

Sworn positions are compensated by rank. The salary range for each rank is negotiated with its respective association (e.g., Calgary Police Association and Senior Officer Association) and documented in the applicable collective agreements. The compensation for the Chief of Police is negotiated with the Calgary Police Commission and reviewed annually. This contract contains the additional financial elements of a moving allowance, flexible spending account and clothing allowance. The compensation for Deputy Chiefs is negotiated with the Chief of Police and reviewed annually. The contracts for Deputy Chiefs also include the additional financial elements of a clothing allowance and the potential for variable pay of 0-10 per cent of the annual base salary.

CIVILIAN POSITIONS

The Calgary Police Service employs civilians in a variety of professional, technical, support and leadership roles. Civilian positions have been grouped according to function. For example, Receptionist, Administrative Assistant and Legal Assistant positions have been grouped under 'Administrative Support.' Additional information about the groups can be found in the Civilian Position Grouping Detail section.

REPORTING MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM SALARY RANGES

Within each group, positions within different unions were grouped together if applicable, and the minimum annual salary of the lowest paid position and the maximum of the highest paid position were reported.

At Calgary Police Service, the majority of civilian full-time employees work a standard (35 hours per week). However, some civilian employees work non-standard hours (40 hours per week) to meet operational requirements. When positions in a group worked both standard and non-standard hours, the minimum annual salary of the least full-time hours at the lowest salary range and the maximum annual salary of the most full-time hours at the highest salary range are reported.

Most CPS employees (55 per cent) earn $100,001 - $125,000 a year. There are 72 employees who earn over $150,000 a year.

Example: Data Entry Clerks	Salary Range
Standard 35 Hours per Week - Pay Grade 3	$48,321 - $64,610
Standard 35 Hours per Week - Pay Grade 4	$52,452 - $70,088

Full Salary Range Reported	$48,321 - $92,602

CIVILIAN POSITION GROUPING DETAIL

Civilian positions are grouped into categories that are meaningful to the organization and job function using the National Occupational Classification (NOC) as a reference. The National Occupational Classification (NOC) is the nationally accepted reference on occupations in Canada. It organizes over 40,000 job titles into 500 occupational group descriptions. The NOC examples given are not exhaustive of each category but rather represent typical jobs within that group

Learn more about the NOC code system at: National Occupational Classification - Government of Canada. The City of Calgary, which includes the Calgary Police Service, continues to use the 2016 version of the NOC.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

In 2020, the CPS participated in The City's Total Compensation Review, which included all members. Using an external consultant, the review looked at how The City of Calgary total compensation package compares to that of other organizations. Overall, The City's total compensation packages (comprising salary, benefits and other compensation) were competitive to other organizations in the study falling around the middle of the pack. The City regularly reviews elements of compensation we receive against the public and private sectors to ensure we remain responsible, competitive and sustainable.

The City of Calgary provides a detailed explanation of benefits and pension for both sworn and civilian employees. Both sworn and civilian employees receive benefits as outlined in the City of Calgary's Municipal Employees Benefit Association of Calgary (MEBAC) Agreement. Civilians participate in the Local Authorities Pension Plan (LAPP) and sworn officers participate in the Special Forces Pension Plan (SFPP). The Chief of Police and Deputy Chiefs also participate in the Police Chief and Deputies Overcap Pension Plan (PCDOPP).
