

For more than 80 years, patrollers have helped thousands of pedestrians cross busy streets safely. They are a reminder of the importance of school zone safety.

Stay safe when you cross the road. Use the 3Ps:

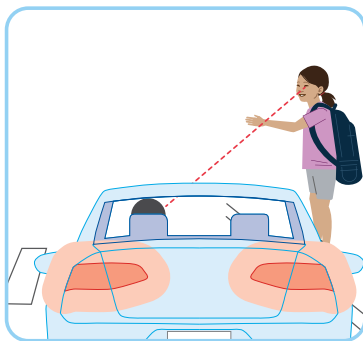

P _____ your arm out.

True or False

By law, drivers must stop for a pedestrian with their arm raised.

Pointing your arm out gets a driver's attention — it shows them you want to cross.

P _____ to wait for vehicles to stop.

True or False

Drivers are always paying attention.

Make eye contact to be sure a driver is not distracted.

P _____ and keep looking as you cross.

True or False

Dark colours are hard for drivers to see.

Wear brightly coloured or reflective clothing, especially at night, so drivers see you better.
