

Anti-Racism Capacity Building Fund

2020 Funding Allocations

Funded Projects	Allocated Amount	Organizations
Calgary CARES (Calgary Collaborating for Anti-Racism, Equity and Social Justice): Strengthening the collaborative capacity of 15 diverse racialized organizations to do impactful actions with decision-making bodies to combat racism at a systems level.	$70,000	Action Dignity Society
African-Canadian Anti-Racism Outreach Program: Creating a capacity-building program by bringing together schools, police service, youth, and African community members to discuss existing racism and identify concrete policy and system updates.	$47,012	African Canadian Immigrant Society
Blackfoot Crossing Cross Cultural Training Program: Providing cross cultural training through anti-racism workshops to all ages through K-12, employees, educators, medical professionals and community.	$40,000	Blackfoot Crossing Historical Park Limited
Anti-Racist Capacity Building for Grassroots and Non-profit Organizations: Building capacity to support Indigenous, Black, and racialized members of CommunityWise to address systemic-racism and increasing the capacity of racialized community members to facilitate anti-racism training in the non-profit sector.	$84,243	CommunityWise Resource Centre
South Sudanese Community Anti-Racism Systems Change Pilot Project: Advancing systems change in an approach that builds power and voice of the South Sudanese community and mobilizes a community of practice to shape service delivery in an equitable, relevant way.	$70,000	Komkan African Institute
Addressing Anti-Black Racism in the Arts Sector: Building capacity in the Calgary arts sector and establishing a steering committee of arts sector leaders and funders to develop a framework for creating equity and diversity.	$34,331	Sankofa Arts & Music Foundation
Bringing Power to Truth - Citizen Artists Harnessing the Spiral for an Anti-Racist Calgary: Building capacity for artists as citizens to examine and confront racism by engaging with communities, systems and leveraging the arts sector to enable an anti-racist social change.	$79,014	The Second Story Art Society O/A TRUCK Contemporary Art
Cultural Capital for Anti-Racism (CC4AR): Growing the cultural capital of marginalized black youth to become self and system level advocates against racism.	$65,000	SOS Congo
New Tribe Magazine-Special Edition: Developing a New Tribe Magazine that focuses on systemic racism within the Calgary Police Service, which will be developed by a coalition of Indigenous youth and CPS staff members.	$60,000	Urban Society for Aboriginal Youth (USAY)