

Jyoti Gondek, Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Seniors' Week recognizes older adults as a growing and diverse population and a vital part of our community. It is estimated that by 2036, nearly one in five Calgarians will be a senior. By generously giving their time, talent and wisdom, older adults are at the heart of many community programs and charitable organizations improving quality of life for Calgarians.

Whereas: For older adults, social connections and community support are essential to feeling good, having fun, staying healthy, and continuing to live a full and happy life;

Whereas: This year's theme "Explore, Engage and Boldly Embrace Aging in Calgary," reflects on how a positive attitude towards aging is creating more opportunities for Calgary's older adult community;

Whereas: By generating awareness of our age-friendly society, Calgarians are encouraged to recognize seniors for their achievements and contributions to our city.

On behalf of City Council and Calgarians, I hereby proclaim June 2-8, 2025 as:
