

Millennium Park Bouldering Area

For your safety and enjoyment, please read all the following before proceeding to use the bouldering area.

Climbing and bouldering are dangerous activities.

Falls could result in loss or damage to your property, injury or death.

This bouldering area is NOT supervised.

By using this bouldering area you willingly accept and assume all risks and hazards. You release and hold harmless The City of Calgary from any and all liability for loss, damage, illness, expense, or injury (including death).

Bouldering Area Hours are from 5:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.

Rules

- The boulders are not play equipment and not for use for children under the age of 14.
- Climbing shoes, a helmet, and one or more crash pads are required.
- Each climber must have a spotter.
- Only climb the boulders using the prescribed climbing routes, available at theonsite.com/urbanboulders or by downloading the OnSite Boulders mobile app using the QR code on the boulder ID plate.
- Keep clear of the fall zone.

- Do not use the bouldering area during poor, wet, snowy, icy or otherwise dangerous conditions.
- No climbing ropes or climbing hardware allowed.
- Only one climber may climb each boulder at a time.
- You must wait for your turn, and ensure any other climber is completely done before you start.
- No dogs allowed.
- No alcohol or drugs.
- No glass or sharp objects.

Conditions of use

- This is not a playground. These climbing boulders must be used only for climbing.
- Ensure your crash pad and fall zone are free of any hazards.
- All climbers must be careful and use caution.
- New climbers must climb low to the ground.
- Each boulder contains a mix of different levels of challenges. Before using the bouldering area please inspect and assess the climbing routes for degree of difficulty.
- Do not climb outside your ability and skill levels. Get qualified instruction to learn any new skills.
- Start easy and progress to harder routes that match your ability and comfort level. Remember: size is not always proportional to difficulty.
- Ensure you are in proper physical condition and health for climbing.
- Do not spend time on top of the boulders as you may interfere with other climbers.
- Down-climb to get off the boulder. Do not jump.
- Keep the bouldering area in good condition. No littering, graffiti, or abuse of the bouldering area is permitted.
- Do not leave valuables unattended, The City is not responsible for any lost or stolen items.

Emergency information In case of a serious accident, call 911. Notify the dispatcher you are at the Millennium Park north side (6 Avenue S.W.)

If you have concerns, see a problem or damage that requires repair, call 311