Population served: All amputees province wide with a focus on peer support and encouragement to participate in sports and recreation programs.

The Alberta Amputee Sports & Recreation Association (AASRA) was originally formed in 1977 to assist amputees from all walks of life with moral, physical and personal support. AASRA is a registered charitable organization in Alberta run by volunteers.

AASRA believes the quality of life for all amputees is enhanced through participation and interaction with other amputees, as well as the able-bodied. This interaction improves each participant’s social, emotional and physical well-being. AASRA provides moral support to new and existing amputees, young and old alike.

Support group meetings, one-on-one consultations with new amputees, as well as recreational and competitive sports programs are provided. AASRA further supports the rehabilitation of amputees by organizing, encouraging and funding personal involvement in social and recreational activities like annual amputee golf tournaments, cycling clinics, hockey, bowling, track and field, skiing and more.

The Association also provides personal support to amputees and their families in the community with amputee and family support groups. Meetings are held at 7 p.m. the last Wednesday of every month at Carewest Glenmore Park, 6909 14th St. S.W. in Calgary (just up the hill and across from Rockyview Hospital). All amputees and their families are welcome.

AASRA believes that it’s not what you’ve lost that counts. It’s what you do with what you have left.

Disability need not get in the way of ability.

AAFS provides community, acceptance, respect and experience for the people of all ages and abilities. AAFS sees a socially and recreationally satisfying future for all members.

The social world can be summed up in one word, relationships. Whether the relationship with our environment, our friends and family or ourselves; the quality and success of our relationships are a large part of determining our quality of life.

At AAFS, we believe everyone needs and deserves a community of people who accept them unconditionally, and needs and deserves the opportunity to experience the world in the way they choose. We do this by fostering a culture of respect and empowering our community to think for themselves and celebrate individuality. We just happen to make lifelong friends along the way.

Mission
Our mission is to provide a community for people with Autism Spectrum Disorder (and similar) where they can be themselves and be empowered.

We let the children/youth be themselves while understanding and accepting their quirks. Our overall goal is to lead our members from social skills to social thinking. Our recreational companions convey a message of respect for self and others leading to a stronger self-image.

AAFS friendship
Friendship means someone who you can trust and/or someone who heals you. You cannot simply ask to be friends, or if the other person is your friend, it is much more advanced than a yes or no answer, and friendship builds up over time.

Friendship is people getting to know other people and being interested in one another; liking them for who they are, and not judging them; not judging the book by its cover.

AAFS provides any kind of program you can imagine! A youth driven agency that works hard to ensure that our youth are coming to do things that they love to do, and meeting friends in an environment that is comfortable and fun!

Activities may include but are not limited to: rock climbing, swimming, zoo, camping, waterslides, laser tag, video games nights, YouTube nights, hiking, rafting and many more!

Challenger Little League Baseball helps establish strong bonds of friendship and understanding between Little League teams in Calgary and surrounding areas in an atmosphere of sharing and caring. In Challenger Division games, Little League “buddies” help their challenged partners catch, throw, field and get around the bases as needed. This interaction has proven to be a positive experience for all children involved.

Challenger players enjoy the thrill of participation while their “buddies” experience the challenges these individuals face in their daily lives. Being involved with Challenger Little League provides the socialization benefits associated with participating in sports, the strengthening of participants’ self-esteem, the disciplines of teamwork and sportsmanship.

Population served: People of all ages with a wide range of disabilities.

Mission: to advance the sport of accessible sailing by offering programs for leisure and competitive sailing for everyone.

Our vision: to become the premier organization in Alberta dedicated to promoting the independence and well-being of disabled and able-bodied persons through the sport of accessible sailing.

Our goals: To provide sailing opportunities for Albertans regardless of disabilities or age.

To provide unique, enjoyable experiences for its participants which include opportunities for social, recreational, rehabilitative and competitive activities.

To build confidence, self-esteem and enhanced independence for people with mobility or other impairments.

To facilitate integration of disabled and able-bodied recreation and competition.

Our goals, therefore, are both rehabilitative and recreational. As has been demonstrated in DSA sailing programs across North America, there is a notable increase in self-esteem and confidence when our stakeholders find themselves sailing independently along with other able-bodied sailors.

The Disabled Sailing Association of Alberta (DSA – Alberta) was formed in 1994 with the goal of establishing permanent sailing programs for children and adults with disabilities in Alberta. DSA – Alberta has successfully provided thousands of Albertans with disabilities the opportunity to say they have “Gone Sailing!”

DSA – Alberta, a largely volunteer organization, has grown into a recognized community service, partnering with more than 35 local agencies to provide recreational opportunities for children and adults with disabilities in Calgary.

A wide range of programs helps to develop skills, promote independence and facilitate integration of DSA – Alberta’s sailors, volunteers and supporters into mainstream sailing events and activities. The success of sailing as a recreational and rehabilitation program is evident in the growing number of people that participate in these programs and the enthusiastic support that DSA – Alberta has received from the disabled communities, community organizations and funding agencies.

The DSA – Alberta also offers sailing lessons to anyone interested in learning to sail on their own, whether a person with a disability or able-bodied.

In recent surveys, 94 percent of our participants are meeting their personal goals through MoMo classes, 100 per cent of support workers and/or family members believe MoMo works on two or more ‘essential skills,’ and every single participant indicated they enjoy their time with us!

MoMo in performance
At the performance level, MoMo creates exciting, new performances every year! Work is both improvised and choreographed, allowing the artists to explore shared ideas and intentions within each artist’s range, removing the boundaries of ability by working with them to create freedom, equality and unique diverse performance. Every spring MoMo presents work at the Vertigo Studio Theatre to share their artistic findings with the community (including Pay-What-You-Can performances). In the past few seasons MoMo has been proud to perform at the University of Calgary’s Dance Montage, The Fluid Festival, the High Performance Rodeo, and the International Day of Persons with Disabilities. The MoMo Performance Ensemble rehearses Wednesday evenings at the Wildflower Arts Centre.

Children’s Adapted Physical Activity (CAPA)
The CAPA program is based on the Canadian Sport for Life-Long Term Athlete Development model, focusing on fundamental motor skills. It is modelled after the Sensory Motor Instructional Leadership Experience (SMILE) program at Acadia University in Nova Scotia. The CAPA program will focus on the total development of each child by enhancing physical skills and motor patterns.

The CAPA program pairs student volunteers one-on-one with children who have special needs (of any type, physical, sensory, developmental and or intellectual, ages six to 12 years). The parents of each child involved will be asked to fill out a form describing the nature of their child’s special needs and any specific goals they have for their child (i.e., verbal, physical and social). Based on this information, each volunteer over the course of the first few weeks will work to develop a long-term plan to help the child work toward these goals in the gym and the pool. The program co-ordinator is Sarah MacEachern. For more information, please contact David Legg at dlegg@mtroyal.ca.

Priori Épée Fencing Club started in April 2006 under the leadership of provost Denis Fournier, who has been developing the sport of fencing in Alberta for over 30 years and coaching athletes (fencers and pentathletes) from recreational to international competitive level.

Priori comes from a Latin word which means “first, better, superior, excellent.” At Priori, we firmly believe in the pursuit of excellence. We are committed to develop the full potential of each athlete, taking into account their personal objectives and abilities. Priori is the first club in Alberta specialized in épée, one of the three weapons of fencing. Épée is the most practiced discipline throughout the world. The rules for scoring in épée are the simplest for the layman and least subjective from a referee point of view.

Physical Literacy – what is that?

Just as learning the alphabet is necessary to read, the development of fundamental movement skills and sport skills is critical if children are to feel good about physical activity.

For kids to get physically active, they need to feel confident in activity settings. This confidence stems from learning fundamental movement skills and fundamental sport skills – physical literacy – as a child.
