

Amendment No. 90/137
Bylaw No. 22Z91
Council Approval: 16 April 1991

SCHEDULE B

1. Land Use

The permitted and discretionary uses of Section 32 RM-7 Residential High Density Multi-Dwelling District shall be permitted and discretionary uses respectively. In addition, a bookstore may be allowed in the structure existing on the site on the date of Council's approval of this by-law.

2. Development Guidelines:

The General Rules for Residential Districts contained in Section 20 of the Land Use By-law 2P80 and the permitted and discretionary use rules of the RM-7 District shall apply unless otherwise noted below.

a) Alteration

Any alteration to the exterior of the structure shall require the approval, by the Approving Authority, of detailed plans showing all proposed alterations.

b) Parking

Parking for the bookstore shall conform with Section 18 of the Land Use By-law 2P80.

c) Screening of the Parking Area

In addition to the landscaping requirements of the RM-7 District, the surface parking area for the existing building shall be of a design and materials acceptable to the Approving Authority, and shall provide adequate screening to serve as an attractive buffer to the adjacent residential uses.

d) Signage

The location, size and quality of signage must be compatible with the residential character of the area;

e) Development Plans

This application does not constitute approval of a development permit. Comprehensive plans including building design, site layout, exterior finishes and colour, landscaping, parking, signage and access shall be subsequently submitted to the Approving Authority as part of a development permit application.
