MAX Orange, Yellow and Teal shelters exhibit select works from the City of Calgary's Public Art Collection. Each work represents a unique perspective of an artist who has resided in Calgary at some point in their lives. Works featured range in age from 80 years old to art created in this decade, and are created by many artists who live here or have lived here. The City of Calgary's Public Art Collection has been built over the last century thanks to the generosity of Calgarians and local organizations, such as the Calgary Allied Arts Foundation.

Some of the oldest pieces of art featured in MAX shelters are from 1938, Old Shed, Sunalta by Jim Nicoll; Memorial Drive East of Centre by Douglas Motter; and Life Class by Wesley F. Irwin.

Please enjoy the art as you drive by on the MAX. It's Calgary's art and it's for us all to enjoy.

Art is displayed along the MAX shelters; MAX Orange, MAX Teal, Max Yellow and MAX Purple lines. Learn more at calgarytransit.com/max
