

Are you ready?

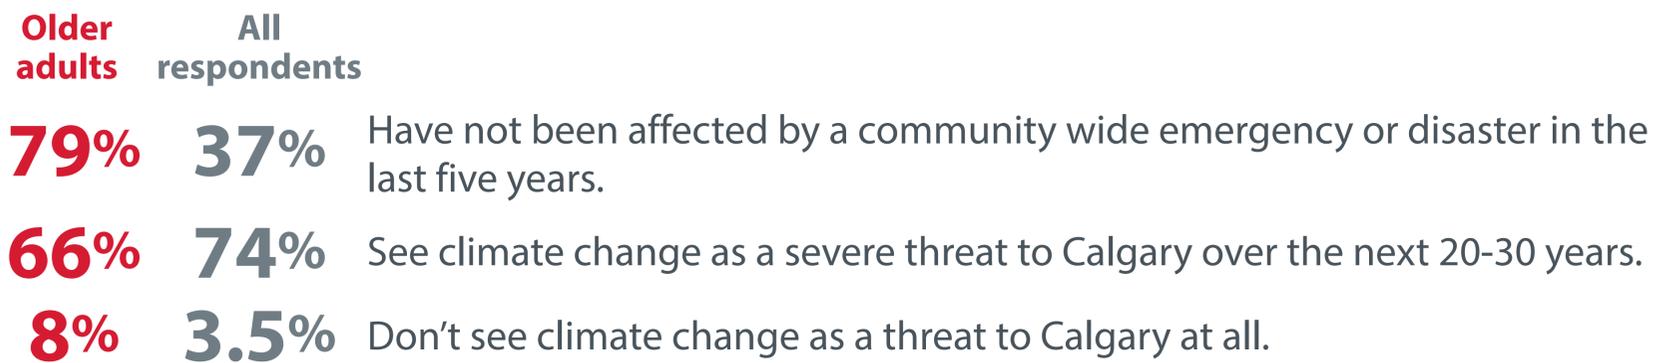

CEMA community survey 2022 results

OLDER ADULTS

We asked Calgarians if they were ready for an emergency.
We heard from 250 residents who identified as older adults – this is what they told us.

What hazards are most likely to occur in Calgary in the next five years?

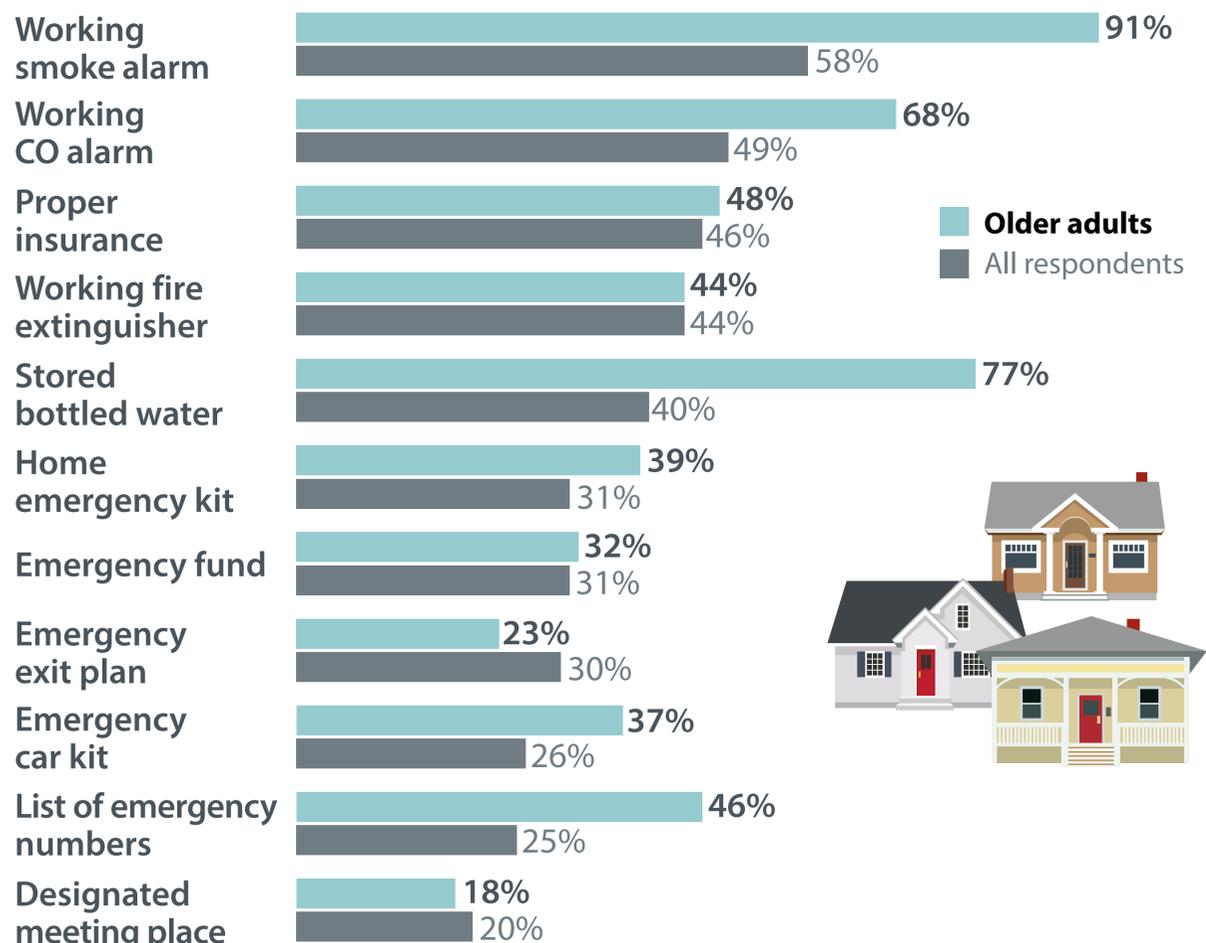

What stops you being more prepared for an emergency?

Older adults | All respondents

What are you doing now to be prepared?

Are you ready?

CEMA community survey 2022 results

OLDER ADULTS

In an emergency

Older adults | All respondents

Where do you look for trusted information?

- Emergency alerts
- TV
- Radio
- News websites
- Emergency responders
- Social media

Would you ask neighbours for help?

49% | 60%

Comfortable asking for help

39% | 32%

Not comfortable asking for help

11% | 6%

Don't know neighbours

2% | 2%

Unsure

If evacuated, where would you stay?

61% | 56%

With family or friends

18% | 22%

In a hotel

19% | 20%

Not sure

2% | 2%

Need somewhere pet-friendly

How long could you live off savings?

44% | 23%

Four months or more

25% | 24%

Up to three months

13% | 29%

Up to a month

18% | 24%

Less than one week

Who are your top three sources for help?

77% | 61%

Family

55% | 52%

Friends

51% | 58%

Emergency responders

Getting better prepared

What do you want to know more about?

- Developing an emergency plan
- Creating an emergency kit
- Making home safer
- Household insurance
- Hazards in Calgary

Where would you look for this information?

- Websites
- Online emergency preparedness app
- Online videos and tutorials
- News sources (TV, radio)
- In-person information session
- Social media

