

Utility Servicing to business and buildings on 17th Ave. S.W.

- We'll work directly with the building or business to make sure utility connections are in place
- In the case of water, a temporary line will connect to your building or business
- Coordinating with the contractor, a temporary connection may involve a larger hose that could travel across the sidewalk and through a door, window or other access point
- No utility disruption is anticipated during business hours